Form 990 Schedule A Part IV
FEI Scholarship Foundation
ID # 16-1675255
Fiscal Year ended June 30, 2013

FACTS & CIRCUMSTANCES TEST

The FEI Scholarship Foundation submits that throughout its existence to date and in the future, it qualifies as a public charity under Internal Revenue Code §509(a)(1) by satisfying the requirements of Regulations §1.170A-9(e)(3) as follows:

(i). Ten Percent Test: The FEI Scholarship Foundation has historically and normally can be expected in the future to receive over 10% of its total support from the general public; the ratio during the advance ruling period was 30% and now the public fundraising campaign is maturing as explained below.

(ii). Attraction of Public Support: Because the FEI Scholarship Foundation is dedicated to supporting higher education and training in the fields of finance and accounting enhancing the accredited colleges and universities in the Greater Houston/Galveston area, it has to date attracted gifts from major Houston area corporations and foundations in varying amounts. By linking the award of financial support to students with their exposure to real world experiences presented as part of an Academic Honors Day sponsored by the Houston Chapter of Financial Executives International, we can better personalize the educational experience, with a focus to encourage ethical business conduct, and the pursuit of finance and accounting as valid career choices. Over 13 major Houston corporations have participated and contributed their facilities, funding and personnel to assist in promoting this annual event and we continue to attract new investors. We have developed an active campaign to target and to continue to attract donors to support our scholarship mission.

(iii). Percentage of Financial Support: Since the FEI Scholarship Foundation was formed in July 9, 2003, it has received over 20% of its total support from public sources in its last four years and can reasonably expect for that ratio to rise to above 30% in the next five to ten years. A Scholarship Endowment Committee has been formed and is actively seeking to raise the remaining funding from a broad base of community organizations and businesses.

(iv). Sources of Support: The FEI Scholarship Foundation receives its support from a representative number of corporations, foundations and individuals, rather than receiving almost all of its support from the members of a single family or small group of individuals. The FEI Scholarship Foundation has to date received gifts from over thirteen corporations and foundations, as well as over 150 individuals.

(v) Representative Governing Body: The FEI Scholarship Foundation's governing body is composed of 5 business leaders who serve without compensation or benefits.

(vi). Availability of Facilities or Services and Public Participation: The FEI Scholarship Foundation's program impacts 12 Greater Houston/ Galveston area universities. Each student selected in the program now receives a $3,000 award increased from $2,000 in 2010, which is intended to materially help the students complete their degree program. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 2014, the scholarship awards have been raised to $4,000 for each student. The universities include: Houston Baptist University, Lamar University, Prairie View A&M University, Rice University, Sam Houston State University, Stephen F. Austin State University, Texas A&M University, Texas Southern University, U of H, Central Campus, U of H, Clear Lake Campus, U of H, Downtown Campus and University of St. Thomas. The FEI Scholarship Foundation will continue to meet with the representatives from the twelve colleges to more fully define eligibility and selection criteria. It currently considers students of any race, color and national or ethnic origin. Initial sections criteria include:

1. The student will have achieved at least a junior status.
2. The student will be enrolled in a school of business with a major in either finance or accounting.
3. The student will have a grade point average of 3.75 or better in their major courses of student, and a 3.0 or better overall.
4. Each student should be an active participant in community service work and demonstrate an active interest in their future profession.
5. Each student should demonstrate a financial need for the scholarship award and is not a recipient of any other significant scholarships.

CONCLUSION: The FEI Scholarship Foundation believes it qualifies as a publicly supported charity described in IRC §509(a)(1) pursuant to the facts and circumstances test found in Treasury Regulation §1.170A-9(e)(3). The FEI Scholarship Foundation has and will receive well in excess of ten percent of its total support from qualifying public sources in the next two to five years. It provides scholarships to 12 universities in the Greater Houston/Galveston area. The FEI Scholarship Foundation is governed by a public board and possesses all the characteristics that describe organizations that meet this test.
